

Americans: You are not welcome here

You will not be welcome anywhere if your government continues its megalomaniac domination of the world.
GO HOME. IMPEACH YOUR PRESIDENT.

Madmen have taken over your country. Rigged elections, 'obligatory' DNA-fingerprinting of all children (Operation Kid-Safe), a universal database of all citizen's private information run by a convicted felon (Admiral John M. Poindexter), unlimited detention of 'suspects' with no legal justification needed (tens of thousands now), a military budget 12 times bigger than the next most powerful country in the world, endemic corporate fraud, a declared never-ending war against an invisible and vague threat, a foreign policy that states quite clearly that it will pre-emptively invade any nation that the government 'thinks' might threaten them. If this doesn't terrify the living daylights out of you, then you must be blind, stupid and ignorant. The parallels with the excesses of Nazi Germany, Stalinist Russia, Soviet East Germany and even ancient Rome are just all too close. Only you, as an American citizen can do anything about it... because unlike your government, we don't believe in interfering in another nation's governance. The weak-minded politicians of this world may pay lip-service to the dictators at the White House, but the feelings of the common man are not so cowardly. Hatred of the USA is on an out-of-control rollercoaster ride, and it is going to get worse. As a population of people, you do not deserve this. The soon-to-begin "excuse to invade" Iraq will release a world of hell upon you and everyone else. Get rid of your insane rulers.

And if you still haven't figured out why just about everyone else in the world hates you... firstly it's not because you have liberty and freedom: everyone respects that! But it is because your government creates wars constantly (over 50 since WW2), installs puppet regimes wherever there are US interests, funds death-squads, breaks and impedes international treaties involving war crimes, genocide, ballistic missiles, environmental crises and nuclear proliferation. The parts of the world that you don't treat as a big themepark, you treat as a ready-to-be-raped commodity supply house. The USA is the only nation in the world to have killed 500,000 people with nuclear weapons: a week after the Japanese had surrendered. The world's largest stockpiles of biological, chemical and nuclear weapons belong to the USA yet you dare to tell other nations that they are evil if they possess the same. The anthrax that so recently terrified everyone was made by a US Defence Department lab. You have constantly given $2 billion every year for the last 40 years to the Israelis to murder the Palestinians, and recently agreed to give them $10 billion more. If that's not putting a burning paper under a hornets nest, what is? And these are only the things that can be found in the media: the suspicions of US involvement in drug trafficking and state-sponsored terrorism just don't go away. Some may be true, some may not, but the rumours continue. With a budget of a few trillion dollars, it's amazing what could be hidden.

Maybe everything wouldn't be so bad if Jimmy Carter hadn't given Al Qaeda $500 million of secret US funds in 1979?

(from the book "Total War", by Zbigniew Brzezinski, Carter's National Security Adviser)

Ponder on that for a while and think about who's responsible for why the world hates you.
We are all fed up with the hypocrisy, corruption and lies.

One more thing: if you try and tell us one more time that the USA was single-handedly responsible for "winning World War 2", we're all going to collectively scream.
What about the 10 million Russian and 2 million Chinese soldiers that died?
